

Proclamation

by

Matthew G. Bevin
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, Kentucky students are today facing extreme challenges such as peer pressure to abuse drugs and alcohol, negative influences in the media, school violence and gang activities, and low self-esteem; and
- WHEREAS, The students of Kentucky are indeed our state's single greatest resource and in the coming years will assume leadership positions in this state and responsibility for the advancement of our society; and
- WHEREAS, It is incumbent upon us as parents, corporate and community leaders to do everything within our power to protect the students of Kentucky and help them develop qualities of character, essential for their future family and leadership roles; and
- WHEREAS, For the past 20 years, First Priority of Kentucky has been a ministry to students, joining fellow citizens and other campus ministries like Fellowship of Christian Athletes, regardless of denomination, to ask God for His blessing and protection upon the students of our state; and
- WHEREAS, We offer prayer for our schools, teachers, and administrators for God's wisdom and knowledge as they impart to the students of our state the great lessons of life and morality, and the education that each student deserves;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MATTHEW G. BEVIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim September 28th, 2016, as

DAY OF PRAYER OVER STUDENTS

in Kentucky, and urge...

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 28th day of July, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Sixteen and in the 225th year of the Commonwealth.
